

Grace Lee Peng, MD, FACS
Board of Directors & Founding Member

Dr. Grace Lee Peng is double board certified in facial plastic and reconstructive surgery as well as otolaryngology, head and neck surgery. She specializes in facelifts and necklifts, rhinoplasties, upper and lower lid blepharoplasties as well as revisional facial surgery, and currently practices in Beverly Hills, California.

Dr. Peng was selected by University of Southern California's (USC) prestigious Baccalaureate/M.D. program, receiving medical school admission during high school. Earning her doctorate of medicine from the Keck School of Medicine at USC, she was sought-after for both her advanced technical skill and scientific knowledge. Working at the Los Angeles County and USC Medical Center, the premier teaching hospital in the nation, Dr. Peng completed her residency in Otolaryngology – Head and Neck Surgery. She also served as Chief Resident during her last year in training.

Through the American Academy of Facial Plastic & Reconstructive Surgery, she accepted the position in a highly competitive fellowship associated with the Keck School of Medicine at USC, working with some of the most prominent plastic surgeons in Beverly Hills including Drs. Paul Nassif, Babak Azizzadeh, and Guy Massry.

Fluent in English, Spanish, and Mandarin, Dr. Peng maintains the highest level of patient confidentiality, dignity and respect.

Instagram: @graceleepengmd